“Going to Washington D.C.”

The past few months I have been working and living (see picture below) with the intercession team “Remnant” in Washington D.C. Remnant is a mobile ministry team based out of Youth With A Mission(YWAM)-Tyler for the past six years and since November 2005 has been based in Washington D.C. doing intense prayer for our government and country (National Day of Prayer in D.C. see picture below). Specifically, the focus of the prayer has been for The President, that he would appoint three pro-life justices, the next election, and for the country to turn back to God.

Recently, The Supreme Court made a landmark decision regarding partial-birth abortion on April 18.

In 2000 The Court struck-down a Nebraska law that would have banned partial-birth abortion in that state in Stenberg v. Carhart, however the case this year was based upon a federal law. The focus of prayer for this case was on Justice Kennedy who decided in favor of partial-birth abortion in Stenberg v.

Carhart in 2000 but, the team prayed and believed that he would become a swing vote and side this year with the pro-lifers on the court in Gonzales v. Carhart. Justice Kennedy not only voted against partial birth abortion, but he wrote the majority opinion. Fighting for the unborn that are created in God’s image brings value to people and when individuals come to an understanding of who they really are in God “brings liberty to mankind.”

“Team Members Leaving”

Soon after arriving in the District of Columbia, I learned that several members of the prayer team were leaving to do other activities. Please pray for them as they are making the transition from Washington D.C.

Pictured here with me is Beth who will be attending college this fall in California.

Pictured here with me is Holly who is at the Inter-national House of Prayer in Kansas City, MO and seeking God for further direction.

Pictured here with me is Serina who will be attending college this fall and in the future attend one of YWAM's School of Dance training programs.

Pictured here with me is Jung who is from South Korea, but at heart considers New York City as his home. Jung will be attending the School of Worship with YWAM-Denver, CO.

“Old Friends”

My friend Kaaren who I consider as a big sister is from Canada and left YWAM-Tyler and is now serving at the International House of Prayer in Toronto, Canada. Please pray for her as she seeks God for direction this fall.

Recently, I had the opportunity to visit James and Sara who had served with me the PHOS (Greek word for “Light”) College Mobile Team. During this visit I got to meet their baby girl Arianna!!

I mention in my last update about my friend Esther who I met when she came as a student to School of the Bible seven years ago. After finishing School of the Bible, Esther, who has a heart for Ireland served on staff faithfully for five years. After going to college full-time and working part-time this past year she is getting married July 13. Please be praying for Esther and her fiancé Matt as they begin their new life together.

Prayer Requests:

- Continue to develop a deeper, loving relationship with Jesus Christ
- Bonding deep friendships with The Remnant Prayer Team
- Go on a vacation with friend(s)
