“The Soboia Family”

Isaac and Betania met at YWAM-Recife, Brazil where he did his training in 1987 and she did hers in 1992. They married in early 1996 and, soon after their wedding, came to serve logistically alongside YWAM-Tyler Staff at YWAM’s International Summer Olympic’s, in Atlanta, Georgia, where I met them. After the Olympic outreach, they went back to Brazil and pioneered the Joao Pessoa ministry location. They did restoration ministry with over 600 disadvantaged children who ran away from bad home situations. Isaac and Betania ended up raising 40 boys from the streets, some as young as five, until they were adults thirteen years later. In the meantime, Isaac and Betania’s family grew to three children, one boy and one girl who they adopted from the streets, and a girl they had through natural birth. In 2010 they returned to YWAM-Tyler.

Since coming back to Texas, Isaac has been working in the kitchen, staffing training schools, and overseeing the all-natural community garden. Betania has been working with training schools as well and serving in the director’s office. Besides serving in various areas of the ministry, they are also dorm parents in the dorm where I stay with student families and other older single guys. They came back to YWAM-Tyler for what they thought would be a sabbatical and instead God showed them they should stay and be bridges to Brazil and the nations. Please pray for an increase in their finances and wisdom as God continues to guide them as a family. Praise God they recently received their green card!
